

ACT ONE WORLD

THE FESTIVAL FOR A JUST, PEACEFUL AND SUSTAINABLE WORLD

11TH-15TH OCTOBER 2021 @
ONEWORLDFFESTIVALNI.COM

ACT ONE WORLD

ONE WORLD FESTIVAL : THE FESTIVAL FOR A JUST, PEACEFUL AND SUSTAINABLE WORLD

11TH-15TH OCTOBER 2021

DISCOVER NEW PERSPECTIVES EXPLORE GLOBAL ISSUES WITH FREE, (MOSTLY) ONLINE, STREAMED AND INTERACTIVE EVENTS FIND OUT MORE AND BOOK NOW AT ONEWORLDFESTIVALNI.COM

festival-long events

following the footsteps of the disappeared exhibition

@ Ulster Museum, Botanic Gardens, Belfast
10am-5pm daily – presented by Conflict Textiles one world quick fire debates!

12pm daily – presented by Concern Worldwide NI

monday 11th october

2.30PM let's hear it for the girls!

presented by Children in Crossfire

3.30PM one world, whose world?

presented by Habitat for Humanity NI

7.30PM eco heroes in a pandemic: girls speak out

presented by Saphara

tuesday 12th october

4.00PM storytelling with still i rise

presented by Still I Rise

7.00PM repurpose at restore

presented by Habitat for Humanity NI

7.30PM rising seas and climate change with marine biologist, ocean educator and Senior TED Fellow Dr Asha de Vos

– presented by Ulster University and CADA NI

wednesday 13th october

10.00AM repurpose at restore

presented by Habitat for Humanity NI

2.00PM poverty on our doorstep

presented by Centre for Global Education

2.00PM following in the footsteps of the disappeared presented by Conflict Textiles

7.00PM youth work provision: young people of African origin and their experiences presented by Friends of Africa

7.30PM towards a sustainable world: the climate crisis and the most vulnerable in the global south with Gonzalo Alvarez, Chairperson of the United Nations Association Climate and Oceans – presented by United Nations Association NI

thursday 14th october

1.00PM africa: standing strong, standing tall

presented by Self Help Africa

2.30PM innovation: the future of sustainable cities

presented by Habitat for Humanity NI

7.30PM the 'new normal' with Dr Mike Ryan, Executive Director of the World Health Organisation's Emergencies Programme – presented by Centre for Public Health at Queen's University Belfast and CADA NI

friday 15th october

1.00PM let's step up presented by Trócaire,

Front Line Defenders and Christian Aid

7.30PM crack the climate silencer

a virtual escape room adventure presented by Tearfund

8.30PM human flow Ai Weiwei's epic film documenting the refugee crisis and its human impact.