

Libertad a los presos políticos / Freedom for the political prisoners. Chilean arpillera, Anonymous, c1985. Photo Martin Melaugh, © Conflict Textiles

Schooling & Culture

Wages for Housework

London Psychogeographical Association

Source: <https://maydayrooms.org/>

Anticolonial Archiving as Method - Workshop

March 10

13.00-17.00

London School of Economics, location tbc

Speakers:

Roberta Bacic, Conflict Textiles

Lukasz Risso, May Day Rooms

We invite you to join a half-day workshop exploring the process of archiving, focusing on creative, anticolonial and resistance-based archives.

This builds on increasing interest in archives created by and for communities and social movements, as well as on archives that are more critical and creative in how they envision archiving and the role of the archive.

Our guest speakers and practitioners will speak about working with archives more creatively, what the process itself looks like and how they have gone about working with different kinds of archives. They will focus on their archival process and work, and engage in discussions based on archival objects they will bring to the workshop.