"...this is a great venue and resource for the community."

WELCOME TO OUR APRIL - JUNE 2023 ARTS GUIDE!

Spring is upon us and we are excited to have a programme of events that reflect the change in season. We will be re-igniting our ArtBeat Initiative, focused on mindfulness and well-being through nature and creativity with a series of outdoor workshops and coastal themed exhibitions as we celebrate the brighter days, longer evenings and the stunning environment of the Causeway Coast and Glens area. We will also be marking 25 years of The Good Friday Agreement in Northern Ireland with an exhibition and mini-series of events that allow us to reflect on peace and the promotion of co-operation in the country. Headlining this season's events we have one of Ireland's most revered ambassadors of music, Brian Kennedy and award-winning multi-instrumentalist traditional Irish music group, Réalta.

Happy Browsing from all of us at Roe Valley Arts!

"The calibre of events that take place at this local centre are brilliant."

HIDDEN CREATIVITY

Northwest Regional College
1 April – 22 April

EXHIBITION LAUNCH: Saturday 1 April,
 12noon – 1pm. Everyone welcome.

Hidden Creativity features the work of a female led collective from the North West and coast of Northern Ireland, all past and present students of the Higher National Certificate at the North West Regional College (NWRC), Limavady.

The artwork represents multi-disciplinary practice, spanning painting, sculpture, printmaking, photography, illustration and mixed media. Artists include Ruth Arbuckle, Debra Black, Grainne Dixon, Carolyn Faith, Norah Heaney, Bernie Kirrane, Louise Mullan and Yolande Shannon. All the artists explore themes of nature, poetry, music, province, locality, memory and experience.

"Proud that we have this terrific asset at the heart our community."

THE GOOD FRIDAY AGREEMENT: WORK IN PROGRESS

Pat Hume, English arpillera, Linda Adams, 2022, Photo Martin Melaugh, © Conflict Textiles

Conflict
Textiles
12 – 15 April

Comprised of arpilleras and other textiles, memorabilia and a selection of books, this exhibition marks the 25th anniversary of the Good Friday Agreement.

Conflict Textiles, in partnership with Causeway Coast & Glens Borough Council and Ulster University, is delighted to engage with the local community in exploring - primarily through textile language - what the Good Friday Agreement means to us all twenty-five years on.

Signed on 10 April 1998, the Good Friday Agreement underpins Northern Ireland's peace, constitutional settlement, institutions and everyday life. We invite you to actively engage during Conflict Textiles' 4 days residency.

At the start of each event below, Curator Roberta Bacic will give a short, guided tour of the exhibition.

EVENTS:

- › Belfast Film Screening on Wednesday 12 April at 7pm (see Page 8)
- › Reception and talk by Professor Emeritus Paul Arthur on the peace process on Thursday 13 April at 7pm (see Page 8)
- › Hands-on textile workshop for children on Friday 14 April at 2pm (see Page 14)

NORTHERN IRELAND PHOTOGRAPHIC ASSOCIATION ANNUAL EXHIBITION

29 April – 27 May

We are delighted to welcome this exhibition by the Northern Ireland Photographic Association featuring images from the members of the camera clubs it represents across Northern Ireland.

Eighty-seven photographs are on display, selected from an overwhelming total entry of 301 by independent and distinguished photographers from The Irish Photographic Federation.

Subject matters vary, from landscape to portrait, sport to architecture and nature, guaranteeing there will be something to excite everyone!

The North West 200 Through the Lens Exhibition

Ritter Gallery
3 – 16 May

Limavady Museum, in partnership with Ian Foster, present a photographic exhibition and display of memorabilia and road bikes from the North West 200. The photographs, including images from the archives of the Chronicle and Constitution, portray many aspects of the NW200 over the years, capturing the excitement and atmosphere of the event.

COASTAL CONNECTIONS: OPEN CALL PHOTOGRAPHY EXHIBITION

10 June – 8 July

Exhibition launch:

Saturday 10 June, 12noon – 1pm. Everyone welcome.

Calling all photographers, whether you're a professional photographer or someone who enjoys taking snaps on your smartphone! Take part in this exhibition which will capture our stunning coastline across the Causeway Coast and Glens through your eyes.

No matter your ability level, we want your images of the coast. The resulting exhibition will be displayed in our Brighter Gallery as well as virtually on our website and we want it to be a vibrant celebration of our unique coastline, in all its natural splendour. To enter, simply take a digital picture of your favourite coastal scene in the Causeway Coast and Glens area and email it to coastalconnectionsopencall@gmail.com by FRIDAY 12 MAY, 5pm. Late entries will not be accepted.

Please make sure your photograph is a suitable high resolution. Individuals can submit up to two photographs maximum. Please also ensure you include the following in your email:

- your full name
- email address or contact number
- where and at what time your photo was taken
- a few words about what the place means to you (50 word limit).

This activity is part of our ArtBeat initiative focused on mindfulness and well-being through nature and creativity.

THIRTY NINE

10 June – 8 July

Exhibition launch:

Saturday 10 June, 12noon – 1pm. Everyone welcome.

Coleraine artist Elizabeth Johnston is inspired by the rugged North Antrim coastline, in particular, a stretch of thirty-nine miles between Ballycastle and Benone. Along this famous route Elizabeth uses acrylic paint to sensitively depict the places she loves to visit, while also capturing the ever-changing light and colours of the land and sea. 'Thirty nine' is a collection of iconic and nostalgic scenes showcasing the natural beauty of our Northern Ireland coastline. An art graduate from the University of Ulster in Belfast, she has taught art and design at a local secondary school for over 30 years and this exhibition launches the next chapter in her artistic career.

Conflict Textiles - The Good Friday Agreement: Work in Progress Exhibition

BELFAST

Wednesday 12 April, 7pm
Tickets £5

Belfast is the highly acclaimed 2021 coming-of-age film written and directed by Kenneth Branagh. Starring Caitriona Balfe, Judi Dench, Jamie Dornan, Ciarán Hinds, Colin Morgan and Jude Hill, the film follows a young boy's childhood in Belfast City at the beginning of 'The Troubles' in 1969. Based on true story events from Branagh's childhood, the film won an Oscar for Best Original Screenplay in 2022 having seven nominations in total and a BAFTA for Outstanding British Film of the Year.

THE GOOD FRIDAY AGREEMENT - THE END OF THE BEGINNING?

A talk by Professor Paul Arthur

Thursday 13 April, 7– 8.30pm
Free admission but booking essential

Light refreshments on arrival followed by guided tour of the exhibition and Professor Arthur's talk.

The vast bulk of peace agreements have a relatively short shelf life. This talk will examine the Good Friday Agreement in this context by exploring the cultural and political context in which it was signed; the fault lines that have emerged in the past 25 years; and the onward journey towards reconciliation. In that latter respect emphasis will be placed on the (negative) role of memory and the healing potential of the arts.

Professor Arthur is Emeritus Professor of Politics at Ulster University, founder and former director of the graduate program in Peace and Conflict Studies, and an honorary professor at INCORE. He was chair of Northern Ireland's 50th Anniversary Civil Rights Commemoration Committee and is a Board member of the John and Pat Hume Foundation. He is also the author of five books, including Special Relationships: Britain, Ireland and the Northern Ireland problem (2001) – and approximately seventy peer-reviewed articles.

"An imaginative programming ethos."

This is a BYO cabaret style event

Described by Irish Music Magazine as "A full bodied pipe and whistle extravaganza" Réalta are an award-winning band based in Belfast. Performing on duelling uilleann pipes, whistles, bodhrán, guitar, bouzouki, double bass and vocals, they'll take you on a journey of music and song through the full range of the Irish tradition.

This event features the world premiere of a new piece inspired by Limavady, commissioned by Live Music Now. Over the last five years Conor Lamb and Deirdre Galway have played in schools, day centres, community venues and care homes in the area, embracing the spirit of the people and the landscape, and this is their tribute.

Réalta are joined for this concert by guest singer and songwriter Myles McCormack, as well as young trad players from CCÉ Jimmy O'Hara (Roe Valley) and a collaboration with poet Anne McMaster.

This event is supported by the Bank of Ireland Begin Together Arts Fund in partnership with Business to Arts and Arts Council of Northern Ireland National Lottery.

"Very relaxing atmosphere."

BRIAN KENNEDY

Saturday 3 June, Doors open
8pm, show begins 8.30pm
Tickets £20

A limited bar will be available at this event*

We are so delighted to welcome Brian Kennedy back after his previous sold-out gigs with us and in fact, Brian was part of our official opening line up way back in 2011!

One of Ireland's most inspired and revered ambassadors of music, he is not only a prolific songwriter but a master interpreter of lyrics as well, and audiences around the world continue to praise his exceptional vocal talents.

The multi-platinum recording artist is first and foremost a live performer and songwriter declaring “music is my lifeblood.” His constant touring from Ireland and the UK to Australia, Europe, Asia and the USA, including the major global festivals, has resulted in an ever-growing international fan base, over a phenomenal three-decade career.

Spotted by Belfast legend and mentor Van Morrison, Brian found himself sharing vocal duties on stages across the globe over a six-year period with Morrison and a breathtaking array of some of the greatest artists in history, including Joni Mitchell, Bob Dylan, Ray Charles and John Lee Hooker to name a few.

"I really appreciate having so much on offer locally."

CINEMA FOR THE QU(EARS)

More info:
peter@northernlightsproject.org

Learn more about this Project

Open call for young lgbtqia+ creatives (musicians, writers, poets, artists...) to work to work on a new immersive audio artwork.

Are you aged between 12 and 18 and living in a rural area in the North West? Are you interested in the arts? Perhaps you write songs, or poetry, or play a musical instrument. Perhaps you are a member of a drama group, or a creative writing group.

If you can imagine new things and want to express yourself, then this might be the project for you!

We are delighted to be one of the host venues for this Northern Lights Project which will get together regularly to create the soundtrack for a new audio artwork to be presents as an immersive installation in our Arts Centre and in the Alley Theatre in Strabane.

With help from workshop leaders, you will use sounds to build up an imaginary cinema soundtrack - Cinema for the qu(ears) - using recordings from daily life, songs you might compose during the project, interviews with friends and family, or imagined sound created in a studio. The content of the soundtrack can be anything you wish - the only limits are the limits of your imagination!

Workshops will be held in Limavady or Strabane depending on which is closest to where you live.
