Conflict Textiles curator Roberta Bacic will be joined by arpilleristas Manoli and Pilar from the Fundació Ateneu Sant Roc group, Catalonia for this guided tour on Friday 28th April from 1pm - 2pm. This is part of their wider visit to Northern Ireland to share their expertise in arpilleras.

Mujeres Disruptivas / Disruptive Women brings together many threads of connection. It marks the 15th anniversary of Conflict Textiles inaugural exhibition The Politics of Chilean Arpilleras (8th February 2008 - 19th April 2008). It builds on a ten year plus collaborative relationship with Fundació Ateneu Sant Roc which has progressed from exhibiting each other's textiles to co curated exhibitions such as ChildrensRights / DerechosdelNiño / DretsdelInfants (2020 - 2021). Mujeres Disruptivas / Disruptive Women is the second co-curated exhibition and adds a new dimension to the Fundació Ateneu Sant Roc exhibition Mujeres Disruptivas / Disruptive Women (Badalona, 2019).

The exhibition takes place across three venues:

- Flowerfield Arts Centre, the location for Arpilleras that Cry Out (2009) will feature the bulk of the exhibition.
- A number of pieces will also be displayed within two Permanent rotating exhibition spaces Conflict Textiles collection: Magee Campus Library, Ulster University
- The Troubles and Beyond in Ulster Museum, Belfast.

The Disruptive Women Exhibition will run until Sat 5th August.
