

You are cordially invited to join UU alumni and the O'Neill Family at the official Launch of the Conflict Textiles Exhibition at UMASS Boston

Ulster University and UMASS Boston invite you on Friday 17 Nov 2023 16:30 to a drinks reception to launch the “Connecting Ties: A Transatlantic Friendship & the N. Ireland Peace Process Exhibition” at Grossmann Gallery, Healey Library, UMass Boston campus, where the Exhibition will be officially opened by Dr Tom O’Neill.

This exhibition illustrates the human dimension to the relationship between the United States of America, Ireland and Northern Ireland Peace process. Over the years, the essential work of Tip O’Neill with John and Pat Hume in the peace process is illustrated through three commissioned textiles: Tip O’Neill, Pat Hume, and John Hume, Peacemaker.

This exhibition is curated by Conflict Textiles in partnership with John Hume & Thomas P. O’Neill Chair in Peace, INCORE, Ulster University, the Joseph P. Healey Library and the Center for Peace, Democracy, and Development (CPDD) at the University of Massachusetts Boston, and the UMASS President’s Office.

For more information please visit the event page of both Ulster University and Conflict Textiles.

