

Seminar

Responding to Disappearance in Chile, Northern Ireland and Turkey

3pm – 4.30pm, 25th October 2023, Room BC-05-303, Belfast Campus, UU

Photo gallery

This seminar was hosted by Conflict Textiles Trust in collaboration with INCORE, TJI and the John Hume & Thomas P. O'Neill Chair in Peace at Ulster University. It featured inputs and reflections from Professor Cath Collins (Ulster University) and Dr Lauren Dempster (School of Law, Queen's University Belfast) on efforts to recover the disappeared in Chile and Northern Ireland respectively. Dr Nisan Alici (School of Law, QUB) presented on the experience of the Saturday Mothers/People campaign in Turkey.

It coincided with the installation of the Conflict Textiles curated exhibition Conflict Textiles / Ulster University, Belfast - The search for the disappeared at UU Belfast Campus library. Following the seminar, Curator Roberta Bacic gave participants a guided tour of the exhibition.

See 'Photo gallery: Exhibition guided tour, 25 Oct' - view.

Professor Brandon Hamber introducing the seminar. (Photo: Gillian Robinson)

Panel of presenters(L-R): Dr Lauren Dempster & Dr Nisan Alici, School of Law, QUB; and Professor Cath Collins, Ulster University.

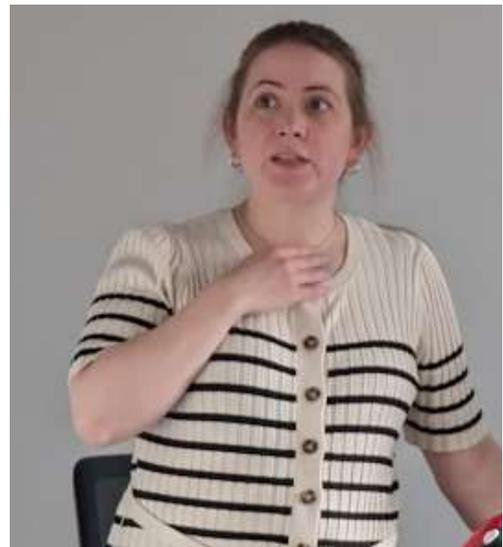

Conflict Textiles curator Roberta Bacic responding to questions.

Professor Cath Collins (Ulster University) presenting on efforts to recover the disappeared in Chile.

(See 'Enforced Disappearance, Chain of events-Chile' - view
'Milestones-human rights cases: Chile 1990-2023' - view)

Dr Lauren Dempster, School of Law, Queen's University Belfast, giving an insight into recovering the disappeared in Northern Ireland.

Dr Nisan Alici (School of Law, QUB) presenting an overview of the experience of the Saturday Mothers/People campaign in Turkey.

(see 'Dr Nisan Alici, Saturday Mothers/People' - view)

(Photos page 2-3: Eva Gonzalez)

Attendees focusing on the presentation. (Photo: Brandon Hamber)

The panel of speakers and Professor Brandon Hamber engaging with attendees. (Photo: Roberta Bacic)

Attendees, contributors and organisers pictured at the close of the seminar. (Photo: Gillian Robinson)

Photo gallery: compiled by Breege Doherty
13th November 2023